
ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS IN THE RETIREMENT FUND INDUSTRY

With Retirement Funds consistently under the microscope, stringent evaluation of service providers and acknowledgement of best practice are critical.

There are two main types of awards: those won based on the judgement of peer or industry “experts” and those won based on the input of clients.

The South African retirement fund industry has numerous awards in general but only a few of the latter type ...

We like awards won on merit, based on the input of clients, and are delighted to say we have been consistent nominees and winners of such honours over the years.

We are extremely proud of these prestigious awards that acknowledge the hard work, dedication and passion with which we work.

Robson Savage sincerely thanks all our clients, employers, members, pensioners and staff without whom these accolades would be not have been possible.
